AUTOGRAPHS OF PEREGRINE[2] WHITE

By George Ernest Bowman

The will of Peregrine[2] White (William[1]), dated 14 July, 1704, was signed by a mark, as shown by the reproduction in our first volume; but we should remember that it was signed only six days before his death, and that he was then aged a little more than eighty-three years and nine months.

The three autograph signatures of Peregrine[2] White, reproduced on the plate facing this page, were written at the ages of seventy-two, seventy-three and seventy-five. These reproductions, which are of the same size as the original signatures, show that Peregrine[2] was an excellent penman. As the first signature reads "Peregrine White Senour" it is certain that the writer was Peregrine[2], born on the Mayflower, and not his son, Peregrine[3].

The earliest of these three signatures was written 26 December, 1692, as a witness to the will of William Norcutt, Sr., of Marshfield, Mass. It is probable that the other witnesses to this will were one of Peregrine's sons and one of his daughters, Daniel[3] White and Mercy[3] White, as I know of no other Daniel and Mercy White in Marshfield at that time. The date of probating the will is shown by the following endorsement on the original document:

"M[r] Peregrine white and Mercy white two of y[e] witnesses here named made oath before william Bradford Esq[r] judge october 18[th] 1693 that they were present and saw and heard y[e] abovesd will[m] Norcut sign seal and declare y[e] above written to be his last will . . . . and that they saw daniel white subscribe to it as a witness"

The second signature is on the inventory of the estate of William Norcutt, Sr., of Marshfield, dated 22 September, 1693, which was taken by Peregrine[2] White and Ephraim Little[3] (Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]). The will and the inventory are in the Plymouth County Probate Files, at Plymouth.

The third signature was written 17 January, 1695/6, when Peregrine[2] White and John Foster witnessed a bond given by John Dogget, of Marshfield, to Samuel Sherman, also of Marshfield, to abide by the award of the three arbitrators, Samuel Clapp, of Scituate, and Isaac Little and Samuel Sprague, both of Marshfield, who had been chosen to determine a controversy about the bounds of the lands on which John Dogget and Samuel Sherman were then living. Isaac Little, the second arbitrator, was the brother of Ephraim Little, one of the appraisers of the estate of William Norcutt, Sr.

The bond bearing the third signature is now in possession of Miss Phebe E. Freeman, of Provincetown, Mass., who very kindly allowed it to be photographed for this article.

GORHAM NOTES

BY GEORGE ERNEST BOWMAN

UNDER the general title of "Gorham Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to the descendants of Capt. John Gorham and his wife Desire, the daughter of John Howland.

In this issue we give exhaustive abstracts of all records, found on the Barnstable County, Mass., Probate Records, relating to the estates of James Gorham[3] (Desire[2] Howland, John[1]), of his brother Col. John Gorham[3], and of Col. John's widow, Mary (Otis) Gorham.

Desire, the first daughter of James Gorham[3], is not called "Desire Sturges" in her father's will, and did not marry "one of the Sturges family", as stated in Otis' "Genealogical Notes of Barnstable Families," Volume I, page 418. She is called "Desire Springer" in the will of her father, and the record is perfectly clear. It is probable that she was the wife of Edward Springer of Newport, R. I., who died about 1711 or 1712, and that she was the Desire Springer who was married to Daniel Hamilton at Barnstable, by Col. Gorham, on 15 December, 1715.†

* These four are on one monument.

NOTES

CHILTON–GRAY–LEBLOND. The Editor has proved that Anna Gray[4] (Mary Winslow[3], Mary[2] Chilton, James[1]) married James Leblond of Boston and had nine children. An important article on Edward Gray's wives and children will appear in an early issue of this magazine.

COOKE–RICKARD. The Editor has proved that Mary[3] Cooke (Jacob[2], Francis[1]) married John[3] Rickard (John[2], Giles[1]) of Plymouth and had seven children. The proof of this marriage will be printed in an early issue of this magazine.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. We regret to say that the number of letters received by the Editor, asking for information about the Mayflower Pilgrims and their descendants, or about other Plymouth Colony families, is so large that it is impossible for one person to reply to all of them.

For fifteen years the Editor has been compiling, from original sources, the genealogies of all the Mayflower families, including all their descendants in both male and female lines, and the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants already owns a very large collection of material, only a small part of which has ever been put into print. The cost of making this collection, which is constantly increasing in size and in genealogical and historical value, has been heavy, and the Society cannot still further increase its expenses by employing an assistant to supply this information free of charge. It has, therefore, become necessary for the Editor to confine his attention to those who are willing to assist the Society in its important work by paying a fee for consultation. All such fees are used solely in extending the Society's research work.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

In any part of Plymouth, Barnstable, and Bristol Counties

Those desiring to have investigations made in this section will find it to their advantage to have the work done by the MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS, which owns a large and rapidly increasing collection of abstracts of probate and land records, also of town, church, cemetery, and private records, and has developed many lines of Mayflower descent not yet printed.

All investigations are conducted under the personal supervision of the Editor, and all fees received are added to the Society's Colonial Research Fund.

ELIZABETH (TILLEY) HOWLAND'S AUTOGRAPH

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. XIII APRIL, 1911 No. 2

AN AUTOGRAPH OF ELIZABETH (TILLEY) HOWLAND

COMMUNICATED BY MISS MARY WINTHROP GOODING

PLYMOUTH COLONY was divided, in 1685, into three counties, Plymouth, Barnstable and Bristol, and among the original documents now on file in the Plymouth County Registry of Probate, at Plymouth, there are a very few relating to estates settled before these counties were organized. One of these documents, of the Plymouth Colony Period, is shown in the accompanying illustration. It is the bond of administration on John Howland's estate. This bond is dated 5 March, 1672, and bears the autograph signatures of Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland, who was the executrix of her late husband's will, and of two of her sons-in-law, John Chipman and John Gorham, who became her sureties. It also bears autograph signatures of Ephraim Morton and William Crow, the two witnesses.

This autograph of Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland is believed to be the only one yet discovered, and we are not aware that it has been noticed by previous writers. It is interesting to note that Elizabeth Howland made "her mark" on this bond by printing her initials, and that, thirteen years later, she signed her will in the same way. [Ante, III : 56.]

PLYMOUTH FIRST CHURCH RECORDS

1681 : In 1681 : the Lords supper was 9 times, one member admitted, 20 children baptized. By reason of the death of the Honourable Governour, M^r^ Josiah Winslow on December, 18 : preceding, the Deputy Gov^r^ & Magistrates being met at court appointed a Fast to be kept while they were sitting, march, 4 : in our meeting house, they being present, it was attended & carryed on by M^r^ Shove praying & preaching in the forenoone, M^r^ Arnold, M^r^ Wiswall & the Pastor praying afternoon.

A sister having sundry ill reports concerning her & also giving Just matter of offence to another sister of the chh, the Elders desired the chh after Lecture July, 13 : to repaire to the Pastors house, where matters were discoursed upon, & not being issued, the chh was desired that day fortnight at the conference meeting to attend that matter, the sabbath before which meeting the Pastor propounded to the chh in publick, that seeing the matter to be discoursed on the wednesday following was weighty & some danger lest the peace of the chh might be interrupted in our agitations, that therefore as many of the chh as could, would come together on the meeting-day morning and spend some houres in prayer for divine guidance & helpe, that the peace & holinesse of the chh might be preserved.

July, 27 : many of the chh came together at the Pastors house in the morning, The Pastor & 4 bretheren prayed, then the conference-worke as at other times was attended, then the matters of offence were declared by the Person offended, & duly prooved, there was in this meeting a very gratious appearance of God in answer to our prayers, not one harsh word in any of the chh one to another but a sweet & pleasant agreement from first to last : The Issue was, the offending sister manifesting (then & doing more the Sabbath after) sorrow for what was amisse, the whole matter was satisfyingly issued.

September, 18 : the Pastor from Col: 3 : 16 : in preaching showed the lawfullnesse & necessity of reading the Psalmes in the Congregation in order to singing; october, 2 : the Elders stayed the chh & desired to know their mindes, some of the bretheren rather desired the old custome of not reading might be continued, but the body of the chh declared for the lawfullnesse of reading & all would rest in the practice of it, Accordingly october, 9 : the Elder began to read the Psalmes, & the Elder desiring the Pastor to expound the Psalme before singing, the Pastor did from that time constantly attend Exposition throughout the whole booke of Psalmes.

December, 1 : the chh kept publickly as a day of Thanksgiving for all the mercies of the yeare. A brother formerly failing by intemperance was againe overtaken in the same kinde, he not attending the chh that sabbath the Elders ordered him, he was appointed to come to a private chh-meeting, his expressions & behaviours were offensive to the chh then, soe they were the sabbath after; He was then bidden to come the next sabbath but he absented; The chh met in private & he not humbling himselfe, yet exersised patience towards him for 2 sabbaths more, at the sabbath when he was expected He came not to meeting & though sent for came not, for all which He was by the Elder in the name of the chh excommunicated, & within 2 years after upon his manifestation of repentance was reconciled to the chh: A chh-child was admonished for selling liquors to the Indians.

The chh kept a publick Fast on Dec: 28 : for persecuted saints in France. A brother & sister were excommunicated for morall scandall & about a yeare after reconciled. The chh kept a Fast at the Pastors house to humble ourselves for outbreaking of sins among us, the Pastor prayed & preached, then M[r] Fuller prayed in the forenoon, the Elder prayed & preached in the afternoone, the Secretary Morton prayed, & the Pastor concluded with prayer.

[p. 12] while the chh was together in this day of Prayer, it was propounded to the chh, that we should put up a Petition to the next Court of Asistants to suppresse soe much selling of strong drinke & lessen the number of ordinaryes & the whole chh readily voted that the Petition prepared by the Elders & then read to them should be subscribed by the Elders in their Name & presented to the Court, as the request of the chh for suppression of sensuality; which they did.

1682 : In 1682 : the lords supper was ten times, nine members were admitted, 29 children baptized.

A sister recommended to us from another chh, yet was not accepted to our communion, till some offence was removed betwixt her & a brother, which upon hearing by some Godly wise was comfortably issued & she was accepted by the chh.

1683 : In 1683 : the Lords supper was 9 times, six members were admitted, sixteen children were baptized.

Two chh-children were publicly admonished for sin. Also a child of the chh now living in another towne fallen into sinne the church agreed to send an Admonition to her which the Elders did in the name of the chh:

July, 15 : the Elders propounded to the chh for a day of Fasting & prayer with reference to the drought, but before the day was fixed God sent a plentifull raine, & the chh kept July, 26 : as a day of publick Thanksgiving for soe seasonable a mercy.

The chh of Barnstable sent to us for messengers to be present at the ordination of M^{r} Jonathan Russell to be their Pastor, on September, 19 : because the Elder could not goe, the Pastor only & Capt Joseph Howland were sent & attended that service; the Pastor gave an account to the chh in publick of the carrying on of that affaire, & it was the constant practice in this chh, that their messengers to any other chh when returned gave an account of matters, though it is not often exprest in this Narrative.

The chh kept october, 18 : a Fast, on account of the troubles of Gods people in England, & blastings with mildews here & in severall places great drought & floods that destroyed much of the harvest.

1684 : In 1684 : the Lords supper was six times, two members were admitted, sixteen children baptized :

Satan is alwayes busy to make divisions in the ches, some differences fell out about this time in the chh, after some discourses wee agreed to call in helpe by way of councill from the ches of Taunton, Marshfield, Duxbury, Bridgwater & Barnstable; the week before they came to us a day of Fasting &

Prayer was kept at the Pastors house by the members of the chh. (though all could not then attend it) The councill met, March, 18 : & saw with their eyes Gods blessing accompanying their endeavours to a gratious healing of his people & ending all matters of difference. The chh set apart May, 2 : to humble ourselves for any error in the late day of temptation, the Pastor in the forenoone prayed & preached then Mr Fuller prayed, in the afternoone the Elder prayed, Secretary Morton, Deacon Finney & Thomas Faunce : then letters were read from a chh child to whom the chh had the yeare before sent an Admonition, manifesting her repentance, which the chh well accepted : Deacon Morton spake against the intemperance & long sitting at ordinaryes of some belonging to us, the Elders & bretheren gave their full Testimony against such irregularities with serious [p. 13] warnings & desires that God would helpe us all to more care & watch-full-nesse in our whole conversation : The 122 Psalme was then sung, the Pastor concluded all with Prayer, this was a very comfortable day of peace & love with unity among us.

June, 25 : the Elder propounded to the chh, whether they would deale with offending chh-seed in private only, the answer of the bretheren generally was, that if the sin were publick they would continue their former practice in publick dealing for it.

This chh never allowed the Blessing to be dispensed at the conclusion of the publick worship on a sacrament morning till after the Lords supper was administred, some without were dissatisfyed at it, the Elder therefore at this meeting desired the chh to expresse their mindes about it there appeared noe forwardnesse to alter the custom, & som bretheren scrupled the lawfullnesse of it, soe there was then noe further discourse of that matter; but some time after it was consented to & practised. A chh-child was publickly admonished for sin he then manifesting noe sense of it but too much of the contrary; but afterward God melted his heart & he became a profitable member of the chh.

Letters from the chh at the North river in Scittuate were sent to us for messengers to be at the ordination of Mr Thomas Mighil whom they had chosen to be their Pastour; Elder Cushman & Mr Joseph Bradford were sent with the Pastour & were present at that Solemnity, october, 15 :

[p. 10] The Arbetration

Wee Willam Collyare James Cudworth Joshua hubburd Josias Winslow And Tho: Broughton Indifferently Chosen by m^r^ Tho: Robinson and m^r^ Josepth Tilden Arbitrators to heare and finally to Determine a case Depending betwixt them about twenty one bushells of mault or barly according to the Case stated in a writing heerto anexed Dated the first of August 1657 and as may appeer by the bonds of arbetration Dated the said eleventh of November 1657 wee or the major pte of us in the Case before Doe Conclude as followeth

1 That the twenty and one bushells of mault paied by m^r^ Tilden to M^r^ Robinson was in Satisfaction for twenty and one bushells of Barly Dew from John Ramsden; to the said Robinson and the said Robinson is accordingly to owne it

2 Secondly in Consideration of a pcell of barly the said Robinson Received of the said Tilden by a suit needlesly Comenced the p^r^mises Considered wee Doe heerby award the said Robinson to pay the said Tilden sixteen bushells of good marchantable Barly

The Reasons of this award are as followeth;

1 first because M^r^ Tilden afeirmed before us that himselfe paied the mault for account of John Ramsden and M^r^ Robinson alsoe acknowlidged before us that hee thought hee according Received it which may excuse us in our Desent from others in this Case who have the graunt of both pties to warrant our Constructions; and other alsoe in their Desent from us whoe might not have soe cleare an evidence to proceed on;

2 The Second Reason is because the Reason which m^r^ Robinson gives why he now thinkes otherwise hath not waight enough in it to Change his thoughts; for had m^r^ Tilden owned twenty and one bushells of barly which hee Received of John Ramsden and placed to his owne account for Debte Due to him from John Ramsden to have bine paied him for M^r^ Robinson account then would M^r^ Robinson have Continewed in his first mind still as himselfe before us acknowlidged; Now wee Conceive that all men Conclude with us that the maner how Ramsden payeth M^r^ Tilden makes noe alteration in the Case; for if M^r^ Robinson bee paied by M^r^ Tilden for Ramsdens Debt hee is paid however or whether ever or never Ramsden pay Tilden; and soe M^r^ Robinsons owne Acknowlidgment makes our Construction whether hee thinkes soe as att first or noe more Reasons might bee given of waight but wee forbeare

1685 : In 1685 : the Lords supper was ten times, 13 children were baptized.

May, 17 : the Elders stayed the chh after the publick worship was ended & moved to sing Psal: 130 : in another Translation, because in Mr Ainsworths Translation which wee sang, the tune was soe difficult, few could follow it, the chh readily consented thereunto.

* These eight are on one monument.

† Cyrus Morton, M.D., and Lucy W. Drew were married 16 October, 1825. [Vital Records of Halifax, Mass., pp. 77 and 88.—EDITOR.]

June, 28 : dyed our Brother Mr Nathaniel Morton in the 73d year of his age, he was a sincere christian, very religiously tender & careful in his observation of the sabbath day & of speaking truth, he had divers times spoken in publick to edification in the absence of the minister & vacancy of the ministry; he took much paines to record the Dispensations of God as appeares in the former part of this book

A chh-child was admonished for scandalous words.

The chh kept November, 11 : a publick Thanksgiving for this yeares mercies.

1686 : In 1686 : the Lords supper was 8 times, 14 members were admitted, 22 childrẽn baptized :

A sister of the chh upon her confession of some failings the chh was satisfyed with her; A child of the chh related to her, to whom the Elder spake some serious words brake forth into Passion & spake evill words reflecting upon the chh, at which the chh was offended with him, but for some weighty cause suspended any prosecution of him for the present for that offence.

Deacon Morton, November, 28 : propounded to the chh the need of another Deacon, because old age with its sicknesses & infirmities had disenabled Deacon Finney from coming abroad or any further attendance upon that office, the Elders accepted the motion & desired the chh to ripen their thoughts for the next sabbath; on December, 5 : the church was stayed after publick worship; the Pastor prayed, then the Elders & bretheren man by man generally nominated for choice, the major part of the then voters were for Thomas Faunce [p. 14] but divers of the bretheren being then absent the compleating of the Election was deferred till their mindes also should be knowne.

Dec: 19 : the chh was detained, & those bretheren before absent or who had not voted were called upon to nominate their choice for a Deacon, which they did & the major part was for Tho: Faunce, It was then declared, that if any Brother had ought to object why he should not be established in the office of a Deacon, they had their liberty to speake, not one objecting, it appeared the chh was very unanimous in this motion, the Pastor then signified, they would proceed to his ordination the next comfortable Sabbath.

on December, 26 : Bro: Thomas Faunce was ordained a Deacon of this Church, the Pastor & Elder laid on hands, the Pastor then prayed & gave the charge & then the Elder prayed : His charge was given in these following words, which are inserted, because it may be of some use in like case in after times.

Since the Lord & this his chh have chosen you our Brother T: F: to the office of a Deacon in his house, wee doe therefore in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Head of the chh, whom God the Father hath established to be his King in Zion, ordaine & set you apart to that spetiall office & imployment of a Deacon in this chh of God, & as from the Lord wee charge you to use the office of a Deacon well & that you give diligent heed to all those rules in the Holy Word of God which set before you the nature & bounds of this your office & worke; And in particular, the Lord requireth of you, that you receive the offerings of the chh & congregation, & that you therewith conscionably serve all the Tables of the chh, distributing the offerings made to the Lord with Gospel-simplicity, not only to the ministry of this chh, but also with cheerfullnesse showing mercy to the Lords poore among us as they may have need thereoff, according to what you are betrusted withall for such ends & purposes; Wee charge you in the Name of the Lord to be Faithfull herein, that you may stand in the great day of the appearing of the Lord Jesus, who will then before Angels & men call you to give an account of this your stewardship; And wee doe further from the Lord charge you, that you labour for the growth & exersise of all those graces that are requisite to furnish you with ability for a regular discharge of this weighty worke, which God now calles you unto, namely, wisedom, gravity, sincerity, freedome from guile, sobriety, spirituall & heavenly-mindednesse, not inordinately reaching after the things of the world, & that in your whole conversation you endeavour to be found blamelesse, exersising yourselfe alwayes to have a Conscience void of offence towards God & man, providing for honest things not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men & that you rule your owne family well in the feare of God, & that you hold the mystery of the faith of the Gospel in a pure conscience; All which, if in the uprightnesse of your heart you labour in & for, you will then purchase unto your selfe [p. 15] a good degree, & great boldnesse in the faith which is in Christ Jesus, which the Lord grant unto you for his mercies sake in christ, who is our Lord & life, And for which great & gratious blessings let us further call upon the Holy Name of God.

Much of this charge was given in the ordination of the 2 former Deacons, Bro: Finney & Bro: Ephraim Morton, August, 1 : 1669 : but here are severall additions upon second thoughts.

1687 : In 1687 : the Lords supper was 9 times, five members were admitted, 23 children were baptized

March, 30 : the chh set apart for fasting & prayer, on account of last yeares drought, uncomfortable winter, Epidemicall coughs & colds, the small pox in some places, & for all the mercies of the yeare etc.

The chh of Taunton sent letters to desire us to come to the ordination of Mr Samuel Danforth to be their Pastor; the Elder could not goe, the chh chose & sent Bro: George Bonum & Bro: Nathaniel wood to attend the Pastor to that solemnity, who did soe, September, 21:

The chh set apart october 26 : for a day of Thanksgiving for the mercies of the yeare, & for liberty to Gods people in O: E: by the Kings Proclamation.

Deacon Finney dyed January, 7 : being eighty yeares of age, a good old man.

1688 : In 1688 : the Lords supper was ten times, eleven members were admitted, 21 children were baptized.

The chh set apart, March, 7 : a day of Fasting & prayer, on account of the measles in the winter & for the mercies of the yeare, & for continuance of & Gods blessing upon the meanes of grace.

A chh-child was admonished for sinne.

The chh set apart May, 3 : as a Fast because of great drought, great rain came that very day & after, soe ready is God to heare the prayers of his people.

June, 17 : the Elders stayed the chh after the publick worship was ended & propounded to them, that seeing divers men who offered themselves to chh-fellowship were bashfull & of low voices & therefore not able to speak in publick to the edification of the congregation, nor to the hearing of the whole chh who should be satisfyed before they vote for their Admission, it was expedient the bretheren should expresse what way they Judged best for helpe & satisfaction herein; the Elders & all the brethren exprest themselves man by man & the generall conclusion of the body of the chh was, that those who could speak to hearing should soe doe in the whole congregation as formerly, but if the Elders Judged any man not capable thereof they should call the chh together in private to heare such make their relations, but voting their Admission & covenanting with them should be deferred to be done in publick; Sundry of the brethren then desired that the Relations made by such might by the Elders be made knowne to the whole Congregation at their admission, as Judging it would be for the edification of others, which Proposall, though it was not opposed by any, yet was left undetermined, & as God directed in the particular cases, wee are to doe as should be Judged for the best.

tous for the peace & prosperity of the chh & to prevent & heale all breaches; He dyed, December, 11 : neere the end of the 84th yeare of his life; December, 16 : was kept as a day of Humiliation for his Death, the Pastor prayed & preached, Mr Arnold & the Pastors 2 sons asisted in prayer; much of Gods prescence went away from this chh when this blessed Pillar was removed.

A liberall contribution was made that Fast day for the Elders widow, as our acknowledgment of his great services to the chh whilst living.*

seven members more dyed this yeare, some of the best.*

A chh-child was publickly admonished for sin.

December, 27 : the Pastor propounded to the chh to choose meet persons to be present with him in the private examination of persons in order to chh-fellowship, the two Deacons & any other Brother whom the Pastor might see reason to call to the worke, the chh voted their acceptance of.

Feb: 10 : was kept as a day of Thanksgiving for the many mercies of this yeare.

DEED FROM SPARROW HEIRS

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. XIV JANUARY, 1912 No. 1

THE HEIRS OF CAPTAIN JONATHAN SPARROW AS SHOWN BY A CONVEYANCE DATED 5 OCTOBER, 1708

By George Ernest Bowman

The accompanying illustration presents the first page of an ancient deed now the property of Mr. Stanley W. Smith. This deed, dated 5 October, 1708, and the confirmatory declaration, dated 11 October, 1712, mention all the living children of Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow (Richard[1]), the children of his deceased daughters, and the children, by her first husband, of a living daughter who had married a second time. It also names the husbands of the living daughters and of two granddaughters.

The deed is of especial importance because it identifies the hitherto unknown wife of Jonathan Higgins[4] (Elizabeth[3] Rogers, Joseph[2], Thomas[1]). Even her first name has been unknown, but she is now identified as Lydia, the daughter of Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow, and the widow of William Freeman[4] (Mercy Prence[3], Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]). The wills of Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow and Maj. John Freeman, and the settlement of the estate of William Freeman[4] [Ante, 3 : 177, 5 : 144, 12 : 59, 13 : 19], prove the marriage of Lydia[3] Sparrow to William Freeman[4]; and in the deed now presented she is named as the wife of Jonathan Higgins, Jr.

The grantee named in this deed was Jonathan[3] Sparrow (Capt. Jonathan[2], Richard[1]), and the grantors were his two brothers, his three living sisters and their husbands, three nephews, two nieces and their husbands.

Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow married, first, Rebecca[2] Bangs (Edward[1]), and had by her :

Rebecca[3] Sparrow, married Thomas Freeman; both were grantors.

John[3] Sparrow, a grantor.

Priscilla[3] Sparrow, married Edward Gray and died leaving a son Benoni Gray, one of the grantors.

Lydia[3] Sparrow; married, first, William Freeman[4], by whom she had a son William Freeman[5] and a daughter Lydia Freeman[5] (who married Richard Godfrey); married, second, Jonathan Higgins, Jr. Jonathan and Lydia Higgins, William Freeman[5], and Richard and Lydia Godfrey were grantors.

Elizabeth[3] Sparrow, married Capt. Samuel Freeman, and died leaving a son Samuel Freeman and a daughter Priscilla, who married John Sears. Samuel and his sister Priscilla and her husband were grantors.

Jonathan[3] Sparrow, the grantee.

Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow married, second, Hannah (Prence) Mayo, daughter of Gov. Thomas and Patience Prence and granddaughter of Elder William Brewster. By her he had :

Richard[3] Sparrow, a grantor.

Patience[3] Sparrow, married Joseph Paine; both were grantors.

It is extremely unfortunate that the Brewster Genealogy [New York, 1908] has made so many serious errors, on page 22, in giving the children of Hannah Prence[3] (Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]) by her two husbands, Nathaniel[2] Mayo and Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow. Three of the five Sparrow children there assigned to Hannah were not her children. They were the children of Rebecca (Bangs) Sparrow, and were not descendants of Elder William Brewster.

In a special article on Capt. Jonathan[2] Sparrow's wives and children I shall present evidence which proves that his children Richard and Patience were the only children he had by his second wife, Hannah (Prence) Mayo.

[p. 8] The inventory was taken on 2 April, 1655, by Henry Cobb and Thomas Huckens, and was presented at the court held 5 June, 1655, by Nathaniel Bacon and George Lewis.

Among the items are: "a sword and a Cattoose box" 2s., 6d.; "2 acres of upland with the corn upon it" £1; "a little pcell of upland more about ½ an acre" 15s. The estate was indebted "To his landlord goodman Lewes"; "to Joseph Laythorp"; to William Casley, Ralph Jones, "goodman Wells", George Lewis, Sr., Barnard Lumbert and Nathaniel Bacon.

[James Pilbeame's Inventory]

[p. 10] An inventory of the estate of James Pilbeame of Rehoboth was taken 6 November, 1653, by Stephen Payne and Robert Martin. The real estate was: "the housing with the upland and meddowes" £30.

"Lenard Ryce being the soninlaw of the Deceased James Pilbeame is allowed to bee Adminnestrator of the said Estate and Doth engage the house and land as Cecurity" for the payment of all claims. The names of John Browne and Thomas Willett are appended to this paragraph, and the appointment appears to have been made by them. Both Browne and Willett were Assistants.

[We have already printed in full, in our seventh, third and eighth volumes, respectively, the wills and inventories of Thomas Gannett, Edward[1] Doty and Mrs. Sarah Jenney, which are found on pages 11 to 21 of the original records.]

[John Granger's Inventory]

[p. 22] "An Inventory of the Goods of John Granger of Marshfeild in New Plymouth in America Deceased the 24th Day of the seaventh month November by Anthony Eames ffrancis Crooker and Moris Trewant as followeth and exhibited before the Court of asistants holden att Plym: the sixt of may 1656 on the oath of Richard Beare"

[Richard Mann's Inventory]

[The frequent resurrection of the totally unfounded claim that Richard More, who came on the Mayflower, changed his name to "Mann" and died at Scituate, makes it advisable to refer, in this place, to our article in the third volume of this magazine, pages 193–201, where it is conclusively proved that Richard More survived Richard Mann nearly forty years.—Editor.]

[p. 23] "An Inventory of the houses lands and Chattles and goods of Richard Mann of Scittuate" was taken 14 April, 1656, by James Cudworth and Walter Briggs, and was sworn to, before Timothy Hatherly, 2 May, 1656. The real estate was: "one Dwelling house & barne with 45 Acars of upland 13 Acars of Marshland with the Residew of a share of Connahasett land undevided" £40.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE TO BE INCREASED. Beginning with the January, 1913, issue (Volume 15, Number 1) the subscription price of "The Mayflower Descendant" will be increased to three dollars ($3.00) per year, payable strictly in advance. The price of single copies will be increased to seventy-five cents each.

GIFT FOR THE COLONIAL RESEARCH WORK. Until 28 March, 1913, the entire receipts from sales of Bowman's Ancestral Charts will be turned over to the Massachusetts Society, to be used in its work of compiling the Mayflower Genealogies.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. We regret to say that the number of letters received by the Editor, asking for information about the Mayflower Pilgrims and their descendants, or about other Plymouth Colony families, is so large that it is impossible for one person to reply to all of them.

For sixteen years the Editor has been compiling, from original sources, the genealogies of all the Mayflower families, including all their descendants in both male and female lines, and the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants already owns a very large collection of material, only a small part of which has ever been put into print. The cost of making this collection, which is constantly increasing in size and in genealogical and historical value, has been heavy, and the Society cannot still further increase its expenses by employing an assistant to supply this information free of charge. It has, therefore, become necessary for the Editor to confine his attention to those who are willing to assist the Society in its important work by paying a fee for consultation. All such fees are used solely in extending the Society's research work and remittances must be made payable to Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

In any part of Plymouth, Barnstable, and Bristol Counties

Those desiring to have investigations made in this section will find it to their advantage to have the work done by the MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS, which owns a large and rapidly increasing collection of abstracts of probate and land records, also of town, church, cemetery, and private records, and has developed many lines of Mayflower descent not yet printed.

All investigations are conducted under the personal supervision of the Editor, and all fees received are added to the Society's Colonial Research Fund.

CHANDLER NOTES

By George Ernest Bowman

Under the general title of "Chandler Notes" we shall print, from time to time, selections from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to the descendants of Edmund[1] Chandler of Duxbury.

There were many intermarriages between descendants of the Mayflower Passengers and the descendants of Edmund[1] Chandler; and the serious errors of writers who have printed their guesses without having made a critical study of the original records have misled many of his descendants. It seems best, therefore, for convenient reference, to arrange the children of Edmund[1] Chandler's three sons in their respective families, as I have proved their relationship by conclusive evidence from the original records, and to print at this time the wills of Edmund[1] Chandler and his son Joseph[2] Chandler, with the settlement of the estate of the son Samuel[2] Chandler, all three of Duxbury. The settlement of the estate of the son Benjamin[2] Chandler was printed in our twelfth volume.

Edmund[1] Chandler left three sons: Samuel[2] Chandler, Benjamin[2] Chandler and Joseph[2] Chandler.

Samuel[2] Chandler (Edmund[1]) died about 1683, and the settlement of his estate shows that he left a widow, but it does not mention her baptismal name, and does not make any reference to children.

Benjamin[2] Chandler (Edmund[1]) married Elizabeth Buck and died about 1691. His widow died about 1732. The settlements of their estates will be found in our twelfth volume, pages 108–112.

Their children were:

Martha[3] Chandler, who married Isaac Simmons[4] (Mercy Pabodie[3], Elizabeth[2] Alden, John[1]).

Samuel[3] Chandler, who married, in 1718, Margaret (Phillips) Bonney, the widow of Joseph Bonney, lived in Duxbury, and died in 1742.

John[3] Chandler, who married, in 1707/8, Sarah Weston, lived in Duxbury, and died in 1759, leaving no children.

Mary[3] Chandler.

Keturah[3] Chandler, who married, in 1703, Nathaniel Samson[4] (Lorah[3] Standish, Alexander[2], Myles[1]).

Benjamin[3] Chandler, who was a carpenter, was adjudged insane in 1745, lived in Duxbury, and died in 1771, having had two guardians, viz. his brother Joseph[3] Chandler, from 1745 to 1750, and Briggs Alden from 1750 to 1771. He was a householder, and probably was married.

Elizabeth[3] Chandler.

Joseph[3] Chandler, who was a carpenter, married, first, in 1720, Elizabeth Delano[4] (Elizabeth[3] Standish, Alexander[2], Myles[1]); married, second, in 1729, Deborah Bonney; was guardian of his insane brother Benjamin[3] Chandler, from 1745 to 1750, lived in Duxbury and Pembroke, and removed to Connecticut in 1750 or 1751.

Joseph[2] Chandler (Edmund[1]) died in 1721, leaving a widow Mercy. He was a blacksmith and lived in Duxbury.

Their children were:

Joseph[3] Chandler, who was a blacksmith, married, in 1701, Martha Hunt, lived in Duxbury, and went to North Yarmouth, Me., before February, 1728/9.

Edmund[3] Chandler, who was a blacksmith, married Elizabeth[3] Alden (Jonathan[2], John[1]), lived in Duxbury, and probably died between 4 April, 1715, and 28 September, 1717. [A special article on Elizabeth[3] (Alden) Chandler, who married, second, on 12 July, 1722, Pelatiah West, will be found in our next issue.]

John[3] Chandler, who lost his hand before 1687 and died before 1721, when his father's will was made.

Esther[3] Chandler, who married, in 1705, John Glass.

Mary[3] Chandler, who married Hezekiah[3] Bradford (William[2–1]).

Sarah[3] Chandler, unmarried in 1721, when her father's will was made.

Joseph[2] Chandler's will mentions also a grandson, John[4] Chandler, but does not give his father's name, and I have not yet determined whether he was a son of the John[3] who lost his hand, a son of Edmund[3] and Elizabeth, or a son of some unknown deceased son. He was not a son of Joseph[3] and Martha.

It would take up too much valuable space to expose even a part of the errors printed about these seven grandsons of Edmund[1] Chandler; but the compiler of the Alden Genealogy, which was published in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register in 1897, 1898 and 1900, makes a statement, in a newspaper article, which demands attention. The statement follows:

> "Elizabeth (Alden) Chandler had certainly: Joseph Chandler, who went to Cornwall, Conn., was before he left guardian for his brother Benjamin who was non-compos. When he went to Connecticut this guardianship was transferred to Briggs Alden. In fact that gave us our first clew, for Briggs Alden was own cousin to Benjamin and lived in Duxbury. There was a John Chandler, another brother, who remained in Duxbury. There were others of the name of Chandler: Benjamin, Joseph, etc., and a great mix-up of their wills and deeds of land."

Inasmuch as Elizabeth[3] (Alden) Chandler's parents were married 10 December, 1672, we must assume that she was not born before September, 1673. But the "non-compos" Benjamin Chandler died in 1771, aged more than 87 years, and was therefore born in 1684 (he was baptized in 1685); his brother John was baptized in 1676 (three years after Elizabeth[3] Alden was born) and his brother Joseph was born between 1687 and 1691. It is quite evident therefore, even without considering the other cumulative evidence, of which I have found considerable, that Elizabeth[3] (Alden) Chandler was not the mother of these three sons of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Buck) Chandler. They were own cousins of her husband, Edmund[3] Chandler, but they were not own cousins of Briggs Alden.

Before the death of Joseph[2] Chandler, in 1721, there were three Josephs in Duxbury, but they are easily distinguished, in the numerous transfers of land on record. "Joseph Chandler Jun^{r} Son of Joseph Chandler Sen^{r} & Thomas Delano jun^{r} Blacksmiths of s^{d} Duxborough" joined with others in selling land 4 April, 1715 [Plym. Co. Deeds, 12:84], and there are numerous conveyances in which Joseph, Jr., is called a blacksmith and the son of Joseph, Sr.

"Joseph Chandler y^{e} 3^{d} of that name of s^{d} Duxborough Carpenter" bought land 24 March, 1715/16 [Plym. Co. Deeds, 12:113]; and Joseph Chandler, housewright, of Duxbury, 27 February, 1710/11, sold land to his brother Samuel Chandler of Duxbury, stating that it came to him from the estate of his father Benjamin Chandler [Plym. Co. Deeds, 9:233]. By means of other conveyances we can trace this Joseph[3] Chandler (Benjamin[2]) to Pembroke and also show that he moved to Connecticut in 1750 or 1751.

It has been a very simple matter to trace Joseph[3] Chandler (Joseph[2]), the blacksmith, by deeds on record at Plymouth, from 1712 to 1727 in Duxbury, and from 1728/9 to 1739 in North Yarmouth, Me.; and in 1749 we find four of his sons, Zachariah, Edmund, Jonathan, and Judah, all of North Yarmouth, selling to Philip Chandler of Duxbury, blacksmith (their oldest brother), their rights in "the Real Estate of Joseph Chandler (late of North Yarmouth aforesaid Blacksmith Deceas[d]) that lyeth in the County of Plymouth aforesaid" [Plym. Co. Deeds, 40 : 242]

[Edmund[1] Chandler's Will]

[Plym. Col. Wills, II : II : 75] The will of Edmund Chandler, "old and weake in body", was dated 3 May, 1662, signed by a mark, witnessed by John Alden and Constant Southworth, and proved at Plymouth on 4 June, 1662. Bequests were made as follows:

"unto my son Samuell Chandeler my whole share of land that is att the place or places Called . . . . Akoaksett and Cushenah"

"unto my sone Benjamine Chandeler . . . . all that tract or trackes of land lying in Duxburrow both upland and meddow with all the housing belonging therunto; onely hee is not to enter upon the possession therof till the tearmes of six yeares bee ended;"

"unto my son Josepth Chandeler . . . . my whole share of land which now lyeth by Taunton River neare unto a place Comonly knowne by the falls with all my further Interest belonging therunto"

"unto my three Daughters Sarah Anna and Mary three thousand and five hundred of sugar which belonges to mee att Barbadoes"

"unto my three Children viz Benjamine Josepth and Ruth Chandeler the four last yeares Rent Due to mee from my son Samuell Chandeler for my land and Cattle; equally to bee Devided amongst them and for the first two yeares Rent I Reserve it for my selfe and to Dispose of as I shall see good"

"that stocke of Cattle of mine which is in my son Samuells hand shall after the tearme of six yeares which hee tooke them for bee equally Devided between my three Children Benjamine Josepth and Ruth"

"my . . . . son Josepth Chandeler to bee sole exequitor"

[II : II : 76] The inventory was taken 2 June, 1662, by John Alden and Philip Delano, and presented at the court held 4 June, 1662. No real estate is mentioned. The estate was indebted to Samuel Chandler, Moses Simons and Joseph Chandler. John Thomas and Abraham Samson were indebted to the estate.

[Samuel[2] Chandler's Estate]

[Plym. Col. Wills, 4 : 2 : 145] The inventory of "late Deceased Samuel Chanler" was taken at Duxbury, 17 November, 1683, by Thomas Delano and John Rouse. "The widdows bed & bedding" were valued at £4. No real estate was mentioned. The estate was indebted to "Capt Thomas", John Delano, Edward Southworth, Joseph Chandler, "good wife Browne", John Sprague, Samuel Howland, "mr Wiswell", Ruth West, John Rouse, "John Sole", Moses Simmons, John Simmons, William Brewster, William Fobes, Samuel West, Joseph Pryer, Thomas Delano.

[Joseph[2] Chandler's Will]

"I Do Constitute . . . . my . . . . son Joseph Chandler Executor of this my last will"

The witnesses were Samuel Sprague, Thomas Hunt, who signed by a mark, and Bethiah Sprague, and all three made oath to the will on 1 January, 1721. It was probated 5 February, 1721.

[From original document] "An inventory of y^e^ Estate of Joseph Chandler Sen^r^ of Duxborugh Decesed" was taken 28 December, 1721, by "Philip Dilino" and Samuel Sprague, and was sworn to on 1 January, 1721, by Joseph Chandler, the executor. No real estate is mentioned. [The inventory is also recorded, 4 : 310.]

1692 : In 1692 : the Lords supper was 11 times, 13 members were admitted & 31 children were baptized.

March, 16 : the Pastor propounded to the chh to endeavour the worke of reformation in ourselves & families, & that the children of the chh should be more diligently watcht over, the chh voted to call all the Adult seed before them to apply sutable counsells & rebukes as there might be occasion;

April, 3 : publick notice was given hereoff that all concerned might prepare themselves accordingly.

April, 24 : the Pastor called the chh between the meetings to his house & moved them to renew a Covenant for Reformation on the approaching day of Humiliation, & to quicken thereunto he read to them the record of what the Church had done in that kinde, 1676 : as also two other papers, the one from the Elders of this Plymouth-Colony & the other from many Elders of Boston-Colony in which were counsells, exhortations & encouragements to a thorough Examination of our hearts & wayes & Reformation of heart & life, both which papers are here next written downe, concluding they may be of use to those that shall succeed in after-generations.

[p. 18] The letter from the Elders of this Colony to the several ches therein.

Bretheren & dearly beloved in our Lord Jesus,

Wee acknowledge our selves to be under solemne & awfull bonds & obligations of Duty to God & to your selves, our Soveraigne Lord having placed us (how unworthy soever in our selves) as his watchmen, & therefore giving us in charge not to keep silence in a day of approaching danger & evill, but faithfully to admonish & give warning to all, that thereby impending wrath may be diverted, the soules of those committed to our charge may be preserved, & wee ourselves delivered from the guilt of the blood of soules; It being a duty incumbent not only upon us but upon every one to consider the words of the Lord & to regard the operation of his hands, wee cannot but minde ourselves & you, of the Lords walking towards us in the way of his Judgments, in particular, the sword of war is drawne in our land, it is now more then 3 yeares since the Heathen & Antichristian enemy hath bin seeking & spilling the blood & consuming the habitations & estates of our countrymen in the Easterne parts of the Country, which though remote from us, yet some of the bitter effects of it wee have felt & tasted, & verily the Holy God thereby saith, Except wee repent wee likewise shall perish; The Dreadfull Hand of God in blasting the designe against Canada, & the death of soe many hundreds occasioned thereby, & the great impoverishing of the country following thereupon is a very humbling stroak & not to be forgotten, Moreover those malignant feavors & burning agues (which God threatens to send upon his people for breaking his commandments) that have bin soe greivous & deadly among us, cry aloud in our eares, that God is very angry with us;

And as to ourselves (not to omit the hitherto unsetled & doubtfull state of the whole country) wee in this Colony are brought exceeding low as to our civill Government, many openly casting off the yoke of subiection to our civill rulers, & there being noe strong rod for a scepter to rule, whereby wee are in great danger of being given into the hands of strangers to manage us at their pleasure, & soe of loosing the liberty of those most pretious enjoyments for the sake of which our blessed fathers followed God into this wildernesse:

Upon these & many other affecting considerations that might be mentioned, Wee the servants of God & of our Lord Jesus in the worke of the ministry, doe sincerely & affectionately commend to all the churches & people of God in this Colony, the serious meditation upon & laying to heart these things, And inasmuch as sinne is the procuring cause of all our troubles, our earnest desire & solemne Proposall is, that each church & Congregation (as well as every particular person) would make diligent search into their owne hearts & wayes, & by the helpe & strength of God labour to the utmost for the finding out those provocations of divine anger that are in the midst of us, & therein deale faithfully & impartially, as in the presence of the Searcher of all our hearts (who hath knowne us above all the [p. 19] families of the earth, & therefore will punish us for all our iniquities, if wee repent not) & that there bee deep Humiliation for & unfeigned, penitentiall confession of all our guilt before the Lord, with a holy resolution & engagement by divine asistance to set upon & be thorough in the worke of Reformation, that magistrates & ministers & this whole people may be turned as one man unto the Lord, which if in good earnest wee engage in, who can tell but God will returne & yet leave a Blessing behind him, & revive his worke in the midst of us, & give us to rejoyce under the shadow of his wings as in the dayes of old, All which Grace the Lord grant to his poore people for his mercies sake in Jesus Christ;

wee subscribe our selves,
your friends & servants for Jesus sake

This following was sent to us from the ministers subscribed Cambridge, 6th, 1m, 1692:

Whereas the most heavy & wasting Judgments of Heaven upon our distressed land, loudly call upon us, noe longer to delay the taking of some hitherto untaken steps towards the Reformation of our provoking evills & the recovery of practicall Religion in our hearts & lives; Among other expedients in order hereunto, wee cannot but Recommend it as adviseable, That the severall churches, having in an instrument proper for that purpose, made a catalogue of such things as can indisputably be found amisse among them, doe with all seriousnesse & solemnity passe their Votes, That they count such things to be very offensive Evills, & that renouncing all dependance on their owne strength to avoyd such evills, they humbly aske the helpe of the Divine Grace to asist them in watching against the said evills both in themselves & in one another; and that the Communicants doe often reflect upon these their Acknowledgments and Protestations as perpetuall monitors unto them, to prevent the miscarriages wherewith too many Professors are too easily overtaken.

Voted, That Letters be written unto the Elders of the other Associations to represent unto them our desire of their concurrence with us in what they shall Judge practicable & profitable as to this matter.

[p. 20] These Papers being read, the chh agreed, that on April, 27: they would attend that duty, & that the Adult male-children of about 20 yeares old & upwards should come to the Pastors house on the morrow, & the Females on the Fast day betweene betweene the meetings to heare what was desired & expected of them, of which the Pastor gave them publick notice in the Congregation that afternoone. Accordingly, April, 25 : there was a very great & generall appearance of all the Male-children of the chh (those very few absent being out of towne or necessarily hindred, not one refusing to owne his Covenant-relation to the chh) the Pastour spent neere 2 houres with them in prayers & solemne Exhortations, Counsells & Admonitions to all sorts of them according to their particular circumstances & then read to them what they had many of them solemnly transacted before the Lord & his people, Anno, 1676 : & asked them, if they were now willing to acknowledge the Lord God of their Fathers, & in like manner on the approaching day of Prayer renew the Covenant for Reformation etc;

This they universally consented unto; it was observed by divers of the chh then present that many were much affected at what was spoken, neither did they spend that training-day evening as formerly too many of them used to doe.

April, 27 : the chh & congregation kept as a day of Fasting & Prayer; the morning was spent in Prayers & Preaching, between the meetings, the Female chh-children came to the Pastors house, a great assembly of them, the Pastor prayed with them, exhorted etc about an houre & did all as with the young men 2 dayes before, & with like successe & issue : The Text in the forenoone was, in Ezek: 9 : 3 : for : part : in the Afternoone, Isa: 58 : 1 :

After which the Pastor stood up & having made some Preface grounded on Joshua, 24 : 15 : etc he read those 2 Papers in the two pages immediately before this; And then called upon all the members of the chh in full communion & desired them all both bretheren & sisters to manifest their consent in renewall of Covenant by Standing up all the time the Paper was reading, the whole chh reverently then stood up, the Pastor then read the Paper containing the confessions of our particular sins & engagements for Reformation, the Paper was the same that on the like occasion had bin improoved, 1676 : (recorded here, Pag : 6 : & 7 :) only some further addition there was in the matter of our Confession which our present condition called for, namely, our breach of promise in not performing our vowes to God in that covenant before renewed, Pride, increase of sensuality, too much neglect in the education of our children, not duly catechizing them, not calling upon them to remember at sermons, suffering them to play on Sabbath-evenings : Then the chh sat downe; the Pastour proceeded, & called upon all the children of the chh to stand up, which they universally did, whilst He read a paper unto them, the same before used on like occasion (here recorded * pag : 7 : 8 :) only with some addition as in the other; the whole solemnity was concluded with prayer; It was observed that many of all sorts were much affected in the time of this solemne transaction, the Good Lord accept us in christ & enable us all by his Holy Spirit to performe our vowes & covenant-ingagements to him. Amen.

Letters came from the chh of Barnstable, renewing their desires that wee would attend in councill with other ches on May, 18 : the chh sent the Pastor & Deacon Faunce, who went at the time appointed.

A sister, was admonished for sin, & the yeare after upon repentance, forgiven

June, 19 : the Pastor stayed the chh after meeting & propounded, that seeing many of the Psalmes in m^r^ Ainsworths Translation which wee now sung, had such difficult tunes that none in the chh could sett, that the chh would consider of some way of Accomodation that wee might sing all the Psalmes, & left it to their consideration

August, 7, at the conclusion of the sacrament, the Pastor called upon the chh to expresse their Judgments about this motion; the vote was this . when the tunes are difficult in the Translation wee use, wee will sing the Psalmes now used in our neighbour-ches in the Bay; not one brother opposed this conclusion; the sabbath following, Aug: 14 : wee began to sing the Psalmes in course according to the vote of the chh

September, 15 : (some motion from some in Authority to the ministers inviting thereunto) the chh set apart & kept as a day of Fasting & prayer for the Army gone Eastward etc.

A chh-child was Admonished for intemperance, & soone after another for like offence.

Some of our chh & neighbours, living at a village in our Township, invited a Brother to carry on some worship among them on Sabbath dayes, which he did, not consulting the chh or Elder about it, Nov: 16 : being sent to they were with the chh, & said they were sorry they had therein given offence to the chh, the chh then declared that they faulted not their soe meeting in short dayes & when the weather was unseasonable, but when seasons were comfortable for travelling they approoved not their absenting from the publick worship with the chh.

A chh-child, living out of towne, the chh sent an Admonition a penitentiall answer was soone returned to the chh, upon which the chh forgave the offender.

Another chh-child was Admonished for sinne.

A motion was made by the Pastor, that some other might be appointed to read the Psalmes, when Deac: Faunce was sick (as he then was Sep: 11 :) the answer was, that the Pastor might call any of the chh whom he had then nominated or any other of the bretheren that might be Judged meet for that service.

SANDWICH, MASS., VITAL RECORDS

Transcribed from the Original Records

By George Ernest Bowman

The earliest original entries of births, marriages and deaths on the records of Sandwich, Mass., are found in a volume now labelled: General Records 1651–1691 Births, Marriages and Deaths, but this label is misleading, as the book contains a number of birth records prior to 1651, and one as early as 1636. The vital records are scattered through the latter part of the book, among records of town proceedings, cattle marks, etc. The book was repaired by the Emery process, and rebound, in 1901.

In the June and September, 1900, and the March and December, 1901, issues of the "Genealogical Advertiser," a small portion of the Sandwich records were printed, with the following introduction:

> The following entries of the earliest births, marriages and deaths of Sandwich are found in the back part of volume two of the vital records of the town. The original record is not known to exist. The numbers in brackets refer to the pages of this volume upon which the entries were made.
> [496] The following records of Marriages Births &c were taken from the oldest known Records of the Town & are true Copies of said Record as follows Attest H G O Ellis Town Clerk Sandwich Sept 15 . 1869

Unfortunately, Mr. Ellis was not expert in reading old records, and evidently did not know that, in the old style calendar, the "tenth mounth" was December, not October, and that the second month was April, not February, consequently he made serious errors, some of which should be especially noted here. "Sarah" Adkins, born 1692, should be "Hanah". "Catherine" Bourne, born 1686, should be "bethshua". "Elehanan" Willis, born 1639, should be "Elchanan". James Percival was born "1671" not "1778" as copied. Ebenezer Lawrence, born 1676, was son of "Robert", not of "Ebenezer". Peleg Nie was son of "John & easther" not of "John & Dasther". Joanna daughter of George "Feilds" not "Fish" was born 1691. John Dillingham married Elizabeth "Feake", not "Peake", and the original record adds that she was daughter of Henry. "Marienne" Skiff, born 1652, should be "Pacience". Four times on one page "Mercy" was copied as "Mary". Robert "Harpper" not "Tupper" married Deborah Perry in 1654. Thomas "Hamblin", born 1671, should be "Hambleton", and "born at Rohd Iland" was omitted from the copy. "Henry" Tupper, born 1638, should be "Thomas". "Jefferson" Gifford, born 1676, should be "yellverton". "Drsula" Dillingham, died 1656, should be "Ursula". And at least one original entry was omitted in the Ellis copy.

The pages of the original book are not numbered, therefore I have arranged the copy here presented with a dash at the end of each original page, to facilitate comparison with the original entries. It should be borne in mind that such a dash in the following printed copy sometimes represents several pages of town proceedings.

*The last figure has been marked over and is now practically illegible. Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, in 1860, and Freeman's History of Cape Cod, in 1862, both give the year as 1659, and it seems unlikely that Rachel was born only eleven months after her sister Margaret, as the date in the Ellis copy, "1653," would have it.

† This entry is not in the same hand as the three preceding entries, and was left unfinished, probably because the clerk noted that the birth of Edmund had already been recorded in the middle of the page. "Oct 5 . 1658" has been added in a modern hand, apparently by Mr. Ellis, in 1869. A comparison of his "copy" with the original records makes it evident that he intended to complete the original entry from the one above, but made an error in the year.

‡ The last "1" was made over a "5". This year was copied as "1778" in 1869.

NOTES BY THE EDITOR

DOTY. The second wife, and widow, of Thomas[3] Doty (Thomas[2], Edward[1]) of Plymouth, was Mercy Ellis of Sandwich. They were married at Sandwich, 18 April, 1705, by Rev. Rowland Cotton.

The wife of Thomas[4] Doty, son of Thomas[3] by his first wife, Elizabeth Harlow[6] (William[4], Rebecca Bartlett[8], Mary[2] Warren, Richard[1]), was Elizabeth Cook. They were married 1 November, 1722, by Rev. Samuel Spear, and both were of Cape Cod, now Provincetown.

* The second figure is doubtful; it is either 0 or 3.

COOK. In a small enclosure in a field, near the Catholic Cemetery at Provincetown, are the graves of two small-pox victims. The inscriptions on the stones, copied in May, 1911, are as follows: "Mr Edward Cook who died with the Small Pox Novr 11 1801 Aged 55 Years." "Mrs Experience Cook wife of Mr Edward Cook who died of the small Pox Decr 19th 1801 Aged 54 Years."

JOHN BUCK'S WILL. The original will of "John Buck of Sittuate" is in the files at Plymouth, but it is worn, and the abstract here presented has been perfected by means of the probate record [Book I, p. 276]. The will was made 4 September, 1697. Bequests were as follows: "I will that all my houseing and lands lying in Sittuate be . . . . sold and equally divided between my daughters"; "I give and bequeath one Cow to my daughter Chandler . . . . I give . . . . to her Children Each of them one Sheep"; "to Isaac Randalls two Children to Each of them Six Shillings"; "to John garrets Children twelve Shillings apeece"; "to all my grand Children liveing at yarmouth and Sandwich one shilling to Each of them:" "my Son in law Isaac Randall to be my . . . . Executor". The will was signed by a mark and witnessed by William Curtis, Sr. (who signed by a mark), John Curtis, James Torrey. It was probated 27 September, 1697, before William Bradford, Judge of Probate. The inventory was taken 21 September, 1697, by Elisha Turner and James Torrey, and sworn to by the executor on 27 September, 1697. "Lands and Houseing" were valued at £50. The original inventory is still in the files.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE TO BE INCREASED. Beginning with the January, 1913, issue (Volume 15, Number 1), the subscription price of "The Mayflower Descendant" will be increased to three dollars ($3.00) per year, payable strictly in advance. The price of single copies of current issues will be increased to seventy-five cents each.

GIFT FOR THE COLONIAL RESEARCH WORK. Until 28 March, 1913, the entire receipts from sales of Bowman's Ancestral Charts will be turned over to the Massachusetts Society, to be used in its work of compiling the Mayflower Genealogies.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. We regret to say that the number of letters received by the Editor, asking for information about the Mayflower Pilgrims and their descendants, or about other Plymouth Colony families, is so large that it is impossible for one person to reply to all of them.

For sixteen years the Editor has been compiling, from original sources, the genealogies of all the Mayflower families, including all their descendants in both male and female lines, and the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants already owns a very large collection of material, only a small part of which has ever been put into print. The cost of making this collection, which is constantly increasing in size and in genealogical and historical value, has been heavy, and the Society cannot still further increase its expenses by employing an assistant to supply this information free of charge. It has, therefore, become necessary for the Editor to confine his attention to those who are willing to assist the Society in its important work by paying a fee for consultation. All such fees are used solely in extending the Society's research work and remittances must be made payable to Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

In any part of Plymouth, Barnstable, and Bristol Counties

Those desiring to have investigations made in this section will find it to their advantage to have the work done by the MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS, which owns a large and rapidly increasing collection of abstracts of probate and land records, also of town, church, cemetery, and private records, and has developed many lines of Mayflower descent not yet printed.

All investigations are conducted under the personal supervision of the Editor, and all fees received are added to the Society's Colonial Research Fund.

SOLE, SOOL OR SOO-LAY'?

By George Ernest Bowman

How did George Soule, the Mayflower Passenger, and his contemporaries, pronounce his name? Was it Sole, to rhyme with coal; or Sool, to rhyme with cool; or Soo-lay', with the accent on the last syllable?

In the fourth volume of this magazine, at page 98, will be found a photographic reproduction of the original will of John Barnes of Plymouth. This will was dated 6 March, 1667/8, and one of the witnesses was George Soule, "Senr". An examination of this reproduction, or of the original autograph signatures of the witnesses, will show that the surname was plainly spelled "Soule", and the addition of "Senr" proves that this witness was George[1] Soule of the Mayflower, not his son George[2]. There is not the slightest indication of any accent, to suggest that the word was French and pronounced Soo-lay', as claimed by a few descendants. The absence of an accent is merely negative evidence, but there is an abundance of positive evidence that the common pronunciation of this name, during the life-time of George[1] Soule of the Mayflower, and for many years after his death, made it rhyme with coal, hole, bowl, etc.

In studying old records we must constantly bear in mind that the recording officers frequently were men of little education, and that their spelling was often an expression of their idea of the sound of a name, rather than of their knowledge of its proper orthography. If, therefore, we find a name spelled in a number of different ways, each one of which can be pronounced to rhyme with coal, hole, bowl, etc., and, further, find that this pronunciation is the only one which can be used for one-third of the forms discovered, there can be no doubt about the common pronunciation of the name.

In sixteen years' study of the original records of Plymouth Colony and the counties and towns into which it was gradually subdivided, I have not found a single instance, prior to 1750, in which the spelling of the name Soule indicated any pronunciation which would not rhyme with coal. The date 1750, seventy years after the death of George[1] Soule of the Mayflower, is mentioned in order to be very conservative. The constantly widening territory in which male descendants of George[1] Soule were found made it impossible to examine every record and determine the date on which the pronunciation "Sool", to rhyme with cool, was adopted by some of the descendants.

An examination of the thousands of pages of original records which have already been literally printed in this magazine, and of a great many original records not to be found in print, has disclosed six ways of spelling this name: Soule, Soull, Soul, Sole, Soal, Sowle, all of which may be pronounced to rhyme with coal.

The earliest contemporary use of the name, in records relating to Plymouth Colony, is in the record of the Division of Cattle in 1623. It is there spelled Soule. [Ante, 1 : 228] Gov. Bradford, in his list of the Mayflower Passengers, written in 1651, uses the form Sowle, but in the same list writes: "aboute a hundred sowls came over in this first ship" [Ante, 1 : 9, 11, 12], showing that he pronounced the surname as if it rhymed with coal; and the frequent occurrence on the original records of the forms Soul, Sole and Soal, with the numerous autograph signatures in the forms Soul and Sole, furnish conclusive evidence that for several generations the name Soule was pronounced to rhyme with coal, hole, etc.

ALDEN NOTES

By the Editor

[Capt. Jonathan[2] Alden's Children]

The record of the settlement of the estate of Capt. Jonathan[2] Alden (John[1]) of Duxbury, on 7 January, 1703, printed in our sixth volume, shows that he left a widow, Abigail, also three sons and three daughters. Only one child is mentioned by name: "John Alden Eldest son of the said Capt: Jonathan Alden"

The deeds here presented give us the names of the other sons, Jonathan[3] and Andrew[3], and show that two of the three daughters were: Elizabeth[3], who married Edmund Chandler of Duxbury, and Sarah[3], who married Thomas Southworth of Duxbury. The other daughter has not been identified.

The first deed here printed was dated 2 July, 1711, and signed by Jonathan[3] Alden, Andrew[3] Alden, Edmund and Elizabeth[3] (Alden) Chandler, Thomas and Sarah[3] (Alden) Southworth; but it was not acknowledged until 8 October, 1717. Edmund Chandler did not acknowledge the deed with the other grantors, and he probably was not living. This conclusion is strengthened by the second deed, dated 28 September, 1717, in which Elizabeth[3] (Alden) Chandler appears as a grantor without her husband. If he had been living, his name would have been mentioned in the body of the deed, although absence or illness might have prevented his signing it.

Jonathan[2] Alden owned, at the time of his death, one half of certain land in the Majors Purchase [Ante, 9 : 145]. As Jonathan[2] left six children, and the oldest son was entitled to a double portion of his father's estate, John[3] Alden's share was two sevenths of his father's half of this land, or two fourteenths of the whole; and the share of each of the other children was one fourteenth of the whole. In the second and third deeds here printed we find John[3] Alden selling, not two, but three fourteenths of this land in the Majors Purchase, and each of the other known children, Andrew, Sarah, Elizabeth and Jonathan, sells one fourteenth. It is certain, therefore, that John[3] Alden had purchased, before 28 September, 1717, the date of the second deed, the one fourteenth which had belonged to the unknown daughter.

[Alden, Chandler and Southworth to Alden]

[Plym. Co. Deeds, 16 : 197] "Jonathan Alden Andrew Alden Edmond Chandler & Elizabeth his Wife Thomas Southworth & Sarah his Wife all of the Town of Duxborough . . . . Send Greeting, Know Ye that We . . . . Have Recievd of our Brother John Alden of Duxborough aforesd full Satisfaction as to our Parts and Claims to any Part of the Lands that was our Fathers Jonathan Alden's in Duxborough aforesd, and by these Presents do Quit our Claim . . . . in or unto any Part or Parcell & every Part of land, Upland or Meadow Land that was our Father Jonathan Alden's aforesd lying within the Township of Duxborough aforesd"

The deed was dated 2 July, 1711, and signed by Jonathan Alden, Andrew Alden, Edmund Chandler, Elizabeth Chandler (by a mark), Thomas Southworth, Sarah Southworth (by a mark). The witnesses were Pelatiah West, Benjamin Samson, Seth Arnold, John Sprague. The deed was acknowledged 8 October, 1717, by all the grantors, except Edmund Chandler, before Seth Arnold, Justice of the Peace. It was recorded 20 May, 1723.

[Alden, Southworth and Chandler to Barker]

Sarah Southworth and Elizabeth Chandler signed by marks.

The deed was dated 28 September, 1717, and acknowledged the same day, by all the grantors, before Seth Arnold, Justice of the Peace. The witnesses were Seth Arnold and Mercy Arnold, the latter signing by a mark. The deed was recorded 5 July, 1718.

[JONATHAN[3] ALDEN TO ISAAC BARKER]

[Plym. Co. Deeds, 25 : 95] "Jonathan Alden of Marshfield .... House Carpenter" for £6, current money, sold to "Isaac Barker of Pembroke .... UNRECORDED BARNSTABLE COUNTY DEEDS

THE abstracts presented in this article have been made from deeds now owned by Mr. Stanley W. Smith. One of these deeds is a certified copy from the Barnstable County Records, made long before these records were burned; the others are from the original deeds. One of the deeds has never been recorded; the others have not been re-recorded since the fire.

One-third, and possibly one-half, of the deed from Edward Bangs to John Doane, Jr., has been lost. A complete copy of the remaining portion is here given, the word "torn," enclosed in brackets, indicating the present end of each line. The assignment endorsed on the back of this deed is dated 21 February, 1675, therefore the date of the deed from Edward Bangs to John Doane, Jr., must have been 17 February of the same or an earlier year. The illustration facing page 129, which reproduces this assignment, is from a photograph made by Mr. John W. Willard and presented by him to this Society. It shows the signatures of Maj. John Freeman, of his wife Mercy, daughter of Gov. Thomas Prence and granddaughter of Elder William Brewster, of Mark Snow[3] (Constance[2] Hopkins, Stephen[1]), of John[2] Doane (John[1]) and of Joseph Lothrop, the Recorder.

1693 : In 1693 : the Lords supper was ten times, seven members were admitted, 29 children were baptized.

April, 5 : the chh set apart for a day of Thanksgiving for the Preservation of the King & Queen etc for our Gospel-mercies, health, harvest, destroying caterpillars last summer, saving ours in stormes checking the enemy at wells, returning Agents, & for that the Government over us is yet in the hands of saints.

[p. 22] The chh set apart & kept, May, 24 : a fast, wherein to humble ourselves for sin, to seeke mercy for the Army & that God would restore peace & give the blessings of the yeare, mercy to o: e: successe to the King etc.

The chh met June : 11 : in the Pastors house to take the relation of a man in order to chh fellowship & accepted him according to the former vote. Leiftenant Ephraim Morton, the Deacon dyed, october, 7 : about 70 yeares of age, He was not only serviceable to the chh in that office, but usually a selectman, & principally imployed in the civill & military services of the towne for many yeares.

Two chh-children were together Admonished for sinne. At a chh-meeting Feb : 4 : the chh voted to sing the spirituall songs in scripture as translated into meeter in our new Psalmbooke the chh was then desired to warne their children & servants not to depart the Assembly before the Blessing, as also to acquaint them, that the ordinance of c[atech]izing them should shortly be revived, the chh unamiously agreed hereunto.

It was then propounded, whether Parents not in full communion might without offence hold up their children to Baptisme! Some spake for it, some said it was an indifferent thing, but generally the bretheren seemed not free to admit of it, but to continue the practice in that matter as formerly.

Letters came to us from the chh of yarmouth to desire our presence & asistance at the ordination of M^r^ John Cotton Junior to be their Pastor on November, 22 : the chh chose to accompany their Pastor two bretheren, Thomas Clarke & Samuel Sturtevant, who then attended that service.

1694 : In 1694 : the Lords supper was ten times, foure members were admitted, & 37 children were baptized.

March, 7 : was a chh meeting, which the sabbath before the chh had notice of & were then desired to prepare their thoughts to nominate some bretheren to serve in the office of Elders & Deacons : The chh spake man by man & all but 2 or 3 of the bretheren nominated Deacon Faunce & Bro: Isaac Cushman for Elders ; And then each brother was called upon to nominate 3 for Deacons ; many of the chh being absent the compleating of the Nomination was deferred till the next sabbath, the bretheren before absent nominated those for Elders above named, & for Deacons, Nathaniel wood was highest in Nomination, George morton & Thomas clarke were aequall in the votes : The Pastor on march, 25 : stayed the chh & told them, he thought it best that the bretheren nominated for Elders should henceforward be accepted by him & improoved with him in all actions that relate to the rule & government of the chh in a way of probation for a time with which the chh readily manifested their concurrence by a ready lifting up of their hands ; accordingly the Pastor alwayes called those 2 bretheren to be with him in triall of persons that offered themselves to the fellowship of the chh, & in case of any offence, or to prepare any matter that was to be brought before the chh. [p. 23] on this March, 25 : the Pastor moved to know the mindes of the chh, whether they would have all the three that had most votes for Deacons or but 2 of them, many spake for 3 seeing 2 of them were aequall in votes, some thought 2 might suffice but would freely rest in the act of the chh whether it were for 2 or 3 : the Pastor then put to vote, namely, If they did make choice of these 3 bretheren, George Morton, Nathaniel Wood & Thomas Clarke to be Deacons of the chh they should manifest it by lifting up their hands, which they did very generally, & after the afternoon sermon the Pastor declared if any in the whole congregation had ought to say why the chh might not proceed to ordaine those 3 bretheren for Deacons, they had their liberty to speak, none at all obiecting, the 3 bretheren were called forth to give their answer to the call of the chh, who did all modestly & humbly expresse their sense of their owne unfitnesse for the worke, their desires of our prayers etc the Pastor then called for the vote of the chh that Deac: Faunce & Bro: Isaac Cushman might joyne with him in laying on hands in their ordination, to which the chh consented by a silentiall vote, then the Pastor prayed & He with those 2 bretheren laid on hands upon these 3 severally one after another, ordaining them to the office of a Deacon, & then the Pastor only once gave them all together their charge in the same words generally which were used in the ordination of Deac: Faunce (recorded here, pag: 14 : 15 :) then againe the Pastor prayed, & wee concluded cheerfully singing, Psal: 133 : & dismist the Assembly with a Blessing : It may be minded in all the 30 yeares which this Narrative gives an account of, the Elders called for the votes of the chh, sometimes by lifting up of hands, sometimes by silence, sometimes calling upon every brother one after another to speak his minde, sometimes when divers had particularly spoken, asking if the rest were soe minded, they in a more generall way assenting ; any of these methods were attended as the Elders thought most expedient. Minde also that in all chh affaires when the Elders called for the vote of the bretheren, they never called for a negative or contrary vote as Judging it would be as the using of axe or hammer in Temple-worke ; only care was taken, before the vote was called for in any case to gaine the consent of every brother, & in case any could not actually vote, yet they expressing, that they could rest in the act of the chh, it was satisfying, & this was a great preservative of the peace of the chh. A chh-child was a second time laid under Admonition for intemperanc The chh was at that time informed that another chh-child had bin overtaken, but it was the first time & he had not that naturall capacity & understanding that other young men had but was defective therein, the chh, voted that the Pastor & the 2 bretheren nominated for Elders should admonish him in private & they would rest satisfyed therewith, this was accordingly done at the Pastors house :

Notice being before given of it, on May, 13 : the Pastor began againe to Catechise the children of the chh in the shorter Catechisme of the Assembly of Divines, in the publick meeting house between the morning & evening worship, the males one sabbath & the females another successively & then preached on each head of Divinity as they lye in order in that Catechisme ; this course was constantly attended for more than 3 yeares, till August, 1697 : from Sabbath to Sabbath, only on Sacrament dayes & in the short winter dayes & very unseasonable weather, there was a necessary omission thereoff. Many of the congregation did heare the sermons preached at the catechising ; & God strengthned & encouraged in the work [p. 24] Our Brother Jonathan Dunham sent letters to the chh desiring our advice about gathering a chh at Edgartowne upon martha's vineyard, where he was imployed in Teaching the word, these letters were read to the chh, April, 8, & left to their Consideration. Apr: 22 : the Pastor having prepared an answer, read it to the chh, they approved of it, & voted it should be subscribed by those 2 bretheren with the Pastour & sent in their name to Brother Dunham. Letters were sent to us from the bretheren of the vineyard & others who offered to joyne with them in that worke to desire us by our Pastor & messengers to be present & asist them to gather a chh & setle a Teaching officer, the chh agreed that either of the nominated Elders or of the Deacons or any other of the bretheren should accompany the Pastor in that service ; the Pastor & M^r^ Samuel Fuller went to the vineyard, the chh was gathered, M^r^ Dunham was ordained Teacher, october, 11 :

A chh-child fallen into sin, living else where the chh sent her a letter of Admonition, the yeare after she sent a letter testifying her Repentance which the chh accepted.

Letters from the chh of Rehoboth came to desire us to attend the ordination of M^r^ Thomas Greenwood to be their Pastor on october, 24 : the chh chose Bro: Thomas Cushman to goe along with the Pastor, they both went at the time.

Letters from the chh at the North-river came to desire us to be with them at the ordination of Mr Deodat Lawson to be their Pastor on November, 14: the chh chose Deac: Faunce & Bro: Elkanan Cushman to goe along with the Pastor to that solemnity, who did all attend that service.

Letters came to us from the chh at Sandwich to desire us to asist them in the ordination of Mr Rowland Cotton to be their Pastor on November, 28 : the church chose our bretheren, Deacon Nathaniel wood & John Nelson to accompany the Pastor thither, who did soe.

Divers of our bretheren at Midlebury sent letters to us to desire our Counsell about their gathering a chh & setling a Teaching officer with them, the chh tooke it into Consideration & after sometime manifested to them our consent to & approbation of their motion.

Then those bretheren & those of other ches & some others who offered to Joyne with them sent letters to desire our Pastor with other Bretheren to helpe them in carrying on that worke on December, 26 : the chh chose Deac: Faunce, Deac: George Morton, Bro. Eliezer churchel & Bro: Ephraim Morton to accompany the Pastor thither on that occasion, & voted, that if God carryed on the worke, that wee dismisse our members, namely, five bretheren [p. 25] & 4 sisters to be of that chh ; the Pastor & those chh-messengers went at the time appointed, the chh was gathered, & then Mr Samuel Fuller was chosen & ordained to be their Teacher.

Five of our bretheren sent a letter to our chh to desire liberty to set up another meeting within the Township for publick worship because their habitations were soe remote from our place of worship that they could not without great difficulty come themselves & could not bring their families soe far, this was read & agitated at a private chh-meeting at the Pastors house January, 21 : & at that time the chh were not willing to give approbation thereunto

Vol. XIV OCTOBER, 1912 No. 4

CAPT. JONATHAN SPARROW'S WIVES AND THEIR CHILDREN

By George Ernest Bowman

Captain Jonathan[2] Sparrow (Richard[1]) of Eastham was married three times. His first wife was Rebecca[2] Bangs (Edward[1]); his second wife was Hannah (Prence) Mayo, the widow of Nathaniel[2] Mayo (John[1]) of Eastham; and his third wife was Sarah (Lewis) Cobb, the widow of James[2] Cobb (Henry[1]) of Barnstable.

There were no children by the third wife; but there were eight children by the wives Rebecca and Hannah; and the second wife, Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow, was a daughter of Gov. Thomas Prence by his first wife, Patience[2] Brewster (William[1]). It is very important, therefore, that the children by the wife Hannah should be positively identified.

The necessity for positive identification has been greatly increased by the many serious errors printed about the children of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow in the first volume of the Brewster Genealogy, published in New York in 1908. On page 22 of that volume the compiler gives what purports to be a list of the children of Hannah Prence by her two husbands, Nathaniel Mayo and Jonathan Sparrow. Three of the Sparrow children there given, Jonathan, Elizabeth and Lydia, were by Jonathan Sparrow's first wife, Rebecca Bangs, and have no place in a Brewster Genealogy.

The names of Hannah's six children by Nathaniel Mayo are correctly stated in the Brewster Genealogy, but it contains errors in regard to all of them except the daughter Hannah. Thomas was born 7 Dec., 1650, not "1650–1",* and his wife

* Double dating was used only in the months of January, February and March.

Barbara was born at Eastham, not at Plymouth. Nathaniel was born 16 Nov., 1652, not "1652–3"*; he died 30, not 3 November; he married in January, not in "June"; his wife's name was Elizabeth, not "Elisa". Theophilus was born 17, not "12" Dec., 1659. All of these births were correctly printed, in 1852, in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, and again, in 1857, in the Plymouth Colony Records. They have also been copied by myself from the original records. The marriage and death of Nathaniel, taken from the original records, were printed in our January, 1902, issue, and the reading "Jenuarie" proves that the marriage did not take place in "June".

The Brewster Genealogy [p. 22] gives Hannah (Prence) Mayo's son Samuel only six children, but his will proves that he had at least five daughters who married, and at least two sons who survived their father.

The statement in the Brewster Genealogy that Hannah (Prence) Mayo's daughter Bathsheba, who was born in December, 1661, or very early in 1662, married Thomas Freeman, who was nearly fifteen years younger than herself, is also an error. Thomas Freeman[5] (Thomas[4], Mercy Prence[3], Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]), born 11 Oct., 1676, married, 22 Aug., 1706, Bathsheba Mayo[5] (Nathaniel[4], Hannah Prence[3], Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]), who was born 23 Sep., 1683, and died 9 Jan'y, 1706/7, evidently without issue. Her death record calls her "the wife of Thomas ffreeman and Daughter of Nathaniel Mayo", and it is recorded with the family of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Wixam) Mayo, her parents. The wife of Thomas Freeman[5] was a granddaughter, not a daughter of Hannah (Prence) Mayo.

The Brewster Genealogy [p. 22] claims that Hannah (Prence) Mayo had by her second husband, Capt. Jonathan Sparrow, five children, viz: Jonathan, Elizabeth, Patience, Richard and Lydia, but only two of these, Richard and Patience, were her children. The others were children of Rebecca Bangs, and were not descended from Elder Brewster.

For convenient reference, Capt. Jonathan Sparrow's children and their mothers are here given:

CHILDREN OF CAPT. JONATHAN AND REBECCA

Rebecca Sparrow, born 30 Oct., 1655, died in Feb., 1740; married 31 Dec., 1673, Thomas Freeman[4] (Mercy Prence[3], Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]).

* Double dating was used only in the months of January, February and March.

John Sparrow, born 2 Nov., 1656, died 23 Feb., 1734/5; married 5 Dec., 1683, Apphia Tracy.

Priscilla Sparrow, born 13 Feb., 1658, died before 10 Mch., 1706/7; married Edward Gray.*

Lydia Sparrow, born after 19 Nov., 1660, died after 16 Mch., 1708/9; married (1st), after 1675, but before 1684, William Freeman[4] (Mercy Prence[3], Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]); married (2d), probably about 1696, Jonathan Higgins[4] (Elizabeth[3] Rogers, Joseph[2], Thomas[1]).

Elizabeth Sparrow, born after 19 Nov., 1660, but before 1670; died after 31 Aug., 1688, but before 1694; married 5 Feb., 1684, Samuel Freeman.

Jonathan Sparrow, born 9 July, 1665, died 9 Mch., 1739/40; married (1st), Rebecca Merrick[4] (Abigail[3] Hopkins, Gyles[2], Stephen[1]); married (2d), Sarah (—— †) Young, widow of Henry.

Child of Capt. Jonathan

Richard Sparrow, born 17 Mch., 1669/70, died in infancy. (Probably by Hannah, but the evidence is not conclusive.)

Children of Capt. Jonathan and Hannah

Patience Sparrow, born before 25 Oct., 1675, died 25 Oct., 1745; married (1st), 27 May, 1691, Joseph Paine[4] (Mary Snow[3], Constance[2] Hopkins, Stephen[1]); married (2d), 23 Nov., 1715, John Jenkins.

Richard Sparrow, born about 1675, died 13 Apl., 1728; married, 4 Feb., 1701/2, Mercy Cobb, daughter of his father's third wife.

Fifty-nine years ago David Hamblen, in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register [Vol. VII, page 280; Boston, 1853], stated that Jonathan Sparrow had children: Rebecca, John, Priscilla, "Mary, b. 10 March, 1659; Apthia, b. 11 Dec., 1660, d. 19 Feb., 1660–1;" Jonathan and Richard. Mary and "Apthia" were not Jonathan Sparrow's children, and their assignment to his family was the result of a very careless error. Mary was the daughter of Daniel Cole, and "Apthia" was the daughter of Samuel Freeman, as will be seen by an examination of the following entries, copied from the original Plymouth Colony Records of "Marriages, Births and Burials".

[M. B. B., p. 32] "Rebeckah the Daughter of Jonathan Sparrow was borne the 30th of october 1655

*This was not the Edward Gray, of Plymouth, who married Mary Winslow[3] (Mary[2] Chilton, James[1]).

† See note on page 256, for possible descent from Stephen[1] Hopkins.

John the son of Jonathan Sparrow was borne the 2cond of November 1656
Presilla the Daughter of Jonathan Sparrow was borne the 13th of february 1658
Apthia the Daughter of Samuell ffreeman was borne the 11th of December 1660:
Apthia the Daughter of Samuell ffreeman Deceased the 19th of february 1660:
Mary the Daughter of Daniel Cole was borne the 10th of March 1658"

[M. B. B., p. 59] "Jonathan Sparrow the son of Jonathan Sparrow was borne the 9th of July 1665
Richard Sparrow the son of Jonathan Sparrow was borne the 17th of March: 1669–70"

Bearing in mind the fact that, for the months of January, February and March, Mr. Hamblen changed the year to new style, the dates given by him for an "Apthia Sparrow" are exactly those recorded for Samuel Freeman's daughter "Apthia"; and the date given by him for a "Mary Sparrow" is exactly that recorded for Daniel Cole's daughter Mary.

It is evident that Mr. Hamblen, in copying the list of Jonathan Sparrow's children, failed to notice the changes in the surnames. Confirmation of this explanation of the cause of the error is found in the similar errors in Mr. Hamblen's "Births, Marriages and Deaths of Provincetown, Mass.", published in 1854, in the next succeeding volume of the New England Historical and Genealogical Register. By reference to the literal copies of the entries in the oldest volume of the Provincetown records, printed by myself, in The Mayflower Descendant, it will be seen that Barnabas Briggs had children by two wives, Abigail and Phebe; also that Robert Wickson had children by two wives, Zuby and Deliverance.* Mr. Hamblen, in each case, gave all the children to the first wife, overlooking the second wife entirely, and a careful comparison of his copies with the original Provincetown records has disclosed more than fifty errors in his work as printed. There seems to be no doubt, therefore, that his error was responsible for the claim that Jonathan Sparrow had daughters Mary and Apphia. For more than ten years I have been on the watch for any evidence that Jonathan Sparrow ever had daughters of these names, and have found nothing in the records on which such a claim can be based; yet this error has been copied many times by later writers.

*See ante, Volume 12, pages 25 and 78.

The birth dates of only five of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow's children have been found; the date of the death of his first wife, Rebecca (Bangs) Sparrow, is unknown; and the date of his second marriage, to the widow Hannah (Prence) Mayo, is also unknown. The conclusions presented in this article are the result of a minute examination of many hundreds of pages of original records: vital, probate and land records, court proceedings, town meeting and proprietors' records, church and gravestone records, and original papers in private hands, for any and every item of possible value in determining which children were by Rebecca, the first wife, and which were by Hannah, the second wife.

In the Plymouth Colony Marriages, Births and Burials [p. 16] we find the marriage, on 26 October, 1654, of Jonathan Sparrow and Rebecca Bangs; and the will of Edward Bangs, dated 19 October, 1677, mentions "my Grandchildren, viz: the children of my Daughter Rebekah Deceased" but does not give their names. [Plym. Col. Wills, 3 : 2 : 106]

As already stated, we have no record of the death of Rebecca (Bangs) Sparrow, or of Capt. Jonathan's second marriage, to the widow Hannah (Prence) Mayo; but, in the Plymouth Colony Court Orders [4 : 127], we find that on 5 June, 1666, "The Court have graunted unto Gyles hopkins; The widdow Mayo of Eastham and Jonathan Sparrow a Certaine psell of land neare Eastham being a smale necke of land Called Sampsons neck; and the wast land lying between the head of the ffresh water pond and the westerly bounds of the widdowe Mayoes land and soe Downe to the Cove"

In the Court Orders [4 : 147], under date of 5 June, 1667, we find: "In Reference unto The graunt of Land graunted unto Gyles hopkins Jonathan Sparrow and the widdow Mayo; the Court have ordered Leiftenant ffreeman either to purchase it or hier it for them as occation shall Require as hee shall see meet;"

On the Eastham records, in a book labelled "Meetings 1650—1705" etc., we find six entries of Nathaniel Mayo's marks for horses. Two entries are dated 21 May, 1659, one on 5 April, 1661, one on 10 August, 1662, and two on 12 February, 1667. All are recorded together, on page 19 (with the book reversed), and the last three are of especial significance, as Nathaniel Mayo died between 19 December, 1661, and 4 March, 1661/2. His son Nathaniel was born in 1652, therefore these entries must refer to the father, and would indicate that the estate, which by the terms of Nathaniel's will was to be divided at his widow's second marriage, was still undivided.

As Hannah (Prence) Mayo was the only "widdow Mayo" in Eastham, these two court records and the entries of marks for horses prove that she did not marry Jonathan Sparrow until after 5 June, 1667, and she probably did not do so until after 12 February, 1667/8. The date 5 June, 1667, is the latest direct reference to Hannah as a widow. The next time she appears on the records is on 11 September, 1671, when "Jonathan Sparrow and Hannah his wife" acknowledged a deed before John Freeman. [Plym. Col. Deeds, 5 : 257.]

It is certain, therefore, that all of Jonathan Sparrow's children born before February, 1667/8, must have been by his first wife, Rebecca Bangs, and that all children born after 11 September, 1671, were by his second wife, Hannah (Prence) Mayo.

Only one child, Richard, born 17 March, 1669/70, is recorded between these two dates. Who was his mother? Although this question cannot at this time be answered with absolute certainty, it makes very little difference, since we can prove by recorded deeds that Capt. Jonathan Sparrow, by his second wife, Hannah, had a son Richard, who survived his mother many years. The town records state that Richard Sparrow died 13 April, 1728, and the gravestone at Orleans adds the statement that he was "Aged 53 Years." If the age on the stone is correct, the son Richard born 17 March, 1669/70, must have died in infancy, and the son Richard who married Mercy Cobb was born about 1675, and named for his deceased brother.

The will of Gov. Thomas Prence [Ante, 3 : 203], dated 13 March, 1672, gives certain lands in Middleborough to his grandson Theophilus Mayo and to his granddaughter Susanna Prence (daughter of his deceased son Thomas Prence) and provides that if either dies without issue his or her share shall "Revert unto, and be equally Devided between my Daughters . . . . or theire heires . . . . The Remainder of My estate my will is shalbe equally Devided to my seaven Daughters, hannah, Marcye Jane Mary Elizabeth, Sarah and Judith, and my above mentioned Grandchild Susanna Prence"

Both of these grandchildren, Theophilus Mayo [son of Nathaniel and Hannah (Prence) Mayo] and Susanna Prence, died without issue, and the numerous transfers and subdivisions of their shares of the land in Middleborough, which are recorded in the Plymouth County Registry of Deeds, are invaluable in tracing the descendants of these "seaven Daughters" of Gov. Prence.

On 17 May, 1706, Joseph Paine and his wife Patience, of Harwich, and Richard Sparrow, of Eastham, sold to Thomas Mayo, Nathaniel Mayo and Samuel Mayo, all of Eastham, "All that our Right which We y^e^ s^d^ Joseph Paine Patience Paine and Richard Sparrow have or ought to have in and to all Manner of Lands whether divided or undivided in the Township of Middleborough . . . . Which s^d^ Right originally descended from our Honoured Grandfather Thomas Prence Esq^r^ deceased Unto Our Honoured Mother Hannah Sparrow Daughter of y^e^ aboves^d^ Thomas Prence Esq^r^ also deceased" The deed was not recorded until 28 May, 1734. [Plym. Co. Deeds, 29 : 2]

The dates of birth of the four children, Rebecca, John, Priscilla and Jonathan Sparrow, show that they were by the first wife, Rebecca Bangs; and this deed proves that Richard and Patience were by the second wife, Hannah (Prence) Mayo. It now remains to determine which wife was the mother of Lydia and Elizabeth.

The will of Richard Sparrow [Ante, 12 : 57], dated 19 November, 1660, and proved the following March, mentions his grandchildren, Rebecca, John and Priscilla Sparrow. The fact that no other grandchildren are named does not prove that there were no others, but the way in which these three are mentioned gives the impression that they were the only grandchildren living, and nothing has been found to indicate that either Lydia or Elizabeth had been born before that date. As the sons Jonathan (1665) and Richard (1670) were both recorded at one time, it is not probable that any child was born between these two; and neither Lydia nor Elizabeth could have been born after 1670, since Lydia was married before 1685 and Elizabeth married on 5 February, 1684.

Thomas Howes of Yarmouth married Sarah[2] Bangs (Edward[1]), a sister of Rebecca (Bangs) Sparrow, and in his will dated 15 January, 1675/6, we find the following clause: "I give to Elizabeth the Daughter of my brother Sparrow which liveth in my family the sume of fifteen pounds; and in case shee Die before shee be married or attaine to twenty years of age then her Legacye to returne to my Daughters;" [Ante, 6 : 161]. The will of Sarah Howes, widow of Thomas, dated 26 February, 1682/3, contains the following provision: "Elyzabeth Sparrow y^t^ now Dwells with me shall have twenty shillings of my estate" [Ante, 6 : 163]. The will of Thomas Howes proves that Elizabeth Sparrow was born after 15 January, 1655/6, and her brother John was born 2 November, 1656, therefore she must have been born after October, 1657, and she probably was born after 19 November, 1660, the date of her grandfather Sparrow's will.

As Elizabeth Sparrow married Samuel Freeman on 5 February, 1684, we must assume that she was born at least as early as February, 1669; and the fact that she is not called under age in the will of Sarah Howes indicates that she was born before 26 February, 1665/6, that is, more than a year before Hannah (Prence) Mayo could have married Capt. Jonathan Sparrow.

If Elizabeth Sparrow had been a daughter of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow, she could not have been born until 1668, at the very earliest, and it would certainly be very strange for Jonathan Sparrow, one of the prominent men of Eastham, to give the first daughter of his second wife to the sister of his deceased first wife, to be brought up at Yarmouth. If this child had been Hannah's, and there had been any necessity for relieving her of its care, it would have been more natural to give the child to Hannah's own sister, Mercy, the wife of Maj. John Freeman, to be brought up in Eastham, where the child's parents resided. In view of all the known facts in the case there is but one conclusion possible — that Elizabeth was a daughter of the wife Rebecca, and after her mother's death was taken by her aunt Sarah (Bangs) Howes.

Jonathan Sparrow's daughter Lydia married William Freeman[4] (Mercy Prence[3], Patience[2] Brewster, William[1]), who died in 1686 leaving at least two children, a son William and a daughter Lydia. The son William's gravestone shows that he was born about 1685, and his sister Lydia was old enough on 4 February, 1701/2, to marry Richard Godfrey. As Lydia Sparrow was certainly married before 1685, and probably before 1684, and as she was not recorded when Jonathan, born 1665, and Richard, born 1670, were recorded, she probably was born before 1665. The definite proof, however, that Lydia Sparrow was not a daughter of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow is found in the conveyances of the various subdivisions of Hannah's share in the Gov. Prence lands at Middleborough, to which reference has already been made.

Hannah (Prence) Mayo had three Mayo sons older than Theophilus, who was mentioned in Gov. Prence's will and died without issue. Thomas was born in 1650 and died in 1729, leaving sons Thomas, Theophilus, Richard and Israel. Nathaniel was born in 1652 and died in 1709, leaving sons Nathaniel and Elisha. Samuel was born in 1655 and died in 1738, four years after Hannah's share of the Prence lands had been sold out of the family by her heirs.

On 11 July, 1711, this son Samuel Mayo bought from Arthur and Elizabeth (Prence) Howland Elizabeth's one-seventh of the Gov. Prence lands. [Plym. Co. Deeds, 7 : 369]

As already stated, Patience (Sparrow) Paine and her brother Richard Sparrow had sold their rights in the Gov. Prence lands, in 1706, to their half brothers, Thomas Mayo, Nathaniel Mayo and Samuel Mayo.

No other conveyance of any portion of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow's one-seventh part of these lands is found until 29 March, 1734. On this date, as shown by the deed printed at the end of this article, Hannah's son Samuel, her grandsons Thomas, Theophilus, Richard and Israel (all sons of Thomas deceased) and her grandson Nathaniel (son of Nathaniel deceased) unite in conveying to Dr Cornelius Bennett of Barnstable the whole of Elizabeth (Prence) Howland's one-seventh of the Prence lands and all but one-half of one-third of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow's one-seventh. This deed states that the land therein conveyed had come into the possession of the grantors in three ways: by purchase from Arthur and Elizabeth (Prence) Howland, by purchase from Richard Sparrow and Patience (Sparrow) Paine, and by inheritance "from our s^{d} Grand & great Grand Father Thomas Prence Esq^{r}"

In another deed, dated 1 July, 1734, Elisha Mayo of Middleborough, who was the youngest son of Hannah's second son Nathaniel, sold to Dr. Cornelius Bennett, the grantee in the deed of 29 March, 1734, one-sixth of one-seventh part of the Prence lands, that is, one-half of his father's one-third of Hannah's one-seventh. [Plym. Co. Deeds, 29 : 119]

In 1734, therefore, Dr. Cornelius Bennett bought the whole of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow's one-seventh part of the Gov. Prence lands from Mayo grantors, as follows: from Hannah's son Samuel Mayo, and from the sons of her deceased sons Thomas Mayo and Nathaniel Mayo. These Mayo grantors distinctly stated that their rights in Hannah's one-seventh came to them in two ways: through the purchase from Richard Sparrow and Patience (Sparrow) Paine, and by inheritance. No reference is made to any purchase from the heirs of Lydia (Sparrow) Freeman, or from the heirs of Elizabeth (Sparrow) Freeman. Descendants of both of these daughters of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow were living in 1734, when these two deeds were made, and they would have been joint heirs with the Mayos, if their mothers had been daughters of Hannah (Prence) (Mayo) Sparrow.

There is no question, therefore, that the only children of Capt. Jonathan Sparrow by his second wife, the widow Hannah (Prence) Mayo, were Patience Sparrow, who married Joseph Paine, and Richard Sparrow, who married his step-sister, Mercy Cobb.

It is interesting to note, however, that three of Capt. Jonathan's children by his first wife, Rebecca Bangs, married descendants of Mayflower Passengers.

The deed of 29 March, 1734, referred to in this article, follows.

[MAYOS TO BENNETT — 1734]

NOTES BY THE EDITOR

A BREWSTER IMPRINT. The illustration facing page 193 is a reproduction of the title page of Thomas Cartwright's "A Confutation of the Rhemists", which was printed at Leyden, in 1618, by Elder William Brewster. This book is now the property of Mr. George Ernest Bowman, the Editor of this magazine, who is a descendant of Elder Brewster.

TINKHAM. The gravestone record [Ante, page 10] of the death of Deacon Isaac Tinkham of Halifax should read "1750" not "1850" as printed.

SARAH (——) (YOUNG) SPARROW. As stated in my article on Capt. Jonathan[3] Sparrow's Wives and Children [Ante, p. 195], his son Jonathan[3] married, for his second wife, Sarah, the widow of Henry Young. A long search for her parentage has not brought definite results; but it has developed data which may lead to a positive determination of this important question. Henry Young died at Eastham, 26 April, 1706, and before 1712 his widow, Sarah, had become the wife of Jonathan[3] Sparrow of Eastham. Sarah, the widow of Jonathan[3] Sparrow, died at Eastham 28 November, 1746, in her 73d year, according to her gravestone at Orleans (formerly a part of Eastham).

Jabez Snow[3] (Constance[2] Hopkins, Stephen[1]) had a daughter Sarah, born 16 or 26 February, 1673 [Ante, 4 : 32 and 5 : 22], who must have been one of the six daughters mentioned, although not by name, in the settlement of his estate in 1695. The age at death of Jonathan[3] Sparrow's widow, Sarah, agrees very closely with the birth date of Jabez Snow's daughter Sarah; and the only son of Jonathan[3] and Sarah Sparrow was named Jabez.

The facts noted do not prove that Sarah Snow[4] (Jabez[3], Constance[2] Hopkins, Stephen[1]) married Henry Young and Jonathan[3] Sparrow, Jr., and they are printed at this time solely for the purpose of awakening among the numerous descendants of Henry Young and Jonathan[3] Sparrow, Jr., an interest in the effort being made to settle the important question of the parentage of Sarah (——) (Young) Sparrow.

WARREN–BUMPAS. The marriage of Samuel Bumpas, on the Barnstable records [See page 227 of this issue], leaves his wife's baptismal name in doubt; but the following conveyance, found on the Plymouth County Records of Deeds [13 : 149], with its acknowledgment, proves that he married Joanna[4] Warren (Richard[3], Nathaniel[2], Richard[1]). The deed was made 14 January, 1716/17; the marriage took place 1 August, 1717; and the deed was acknowledged 29 January, 1717/18.

"Joanna Warren of y^e^ Town of Barnstable" for £5 in money, "Paid by Samuel Warren of y^e^ Town of middleborough" sold to him "All my Right . . . . into all y^e^ Lands both Uplands meadows & Swamps which did Formerly Belong unto my Hon^d^ Father Richard Warren Deceased and which He dyed Seized of Lying & Being within y^e^ Township of middleborough afores^d^" The deed was dated 14 January, 1716/17, and witnessed by Isaac Billington, Abiah Wood and Jerusha Wood.

"Barnstable ss. On y^e^ 29^th^ Day of January . 1717 . SUBSCRIPTION PRICE TO BE INCREASED. Beginning with the January, 1913, issue (Volume 15, Number 1) the subscription price of "The Mayflower Descendant" will be increased to three dollars ($3.00) per year, payable strictly in advance. The price of single copies will be increased to seventy-five cents each.

GIFT FOR THE COLONIAL RESEARCH WORK. Until 28 March, 1913, the entire receipts from sales of Bowman's Ancestral Charts will be turned over to the Massachusetts Society, to be used in its work of compiling the Mayflower Genealogies.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS. We regret to say that the number of letters received by the Editor, asking for information about the Mayflower Pilgrims and their descendants, or about other Plymouth Colony families, is so large that it is impossible for one person to reply to all of them.

For sixteen years the Editor has been compiling, from original sources, the genealogies of all the Mayflower families, including all their descendants in both male and female lines, and the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants already owns a very large collection of material, only a small part of which has ever been put into print. The cost of making this collection, which is constantly increasing in size and in genealogical and historical value, has been heavy, and the Society cannot still further increase its expenses by employing an assistant to supply this information free of charge. It has, therefore, become necessary for the Editor to confine his attention to those who are willing to assist the Society in its important work by paying a fee for consultation. All such fees are used solely in extending the Society's research work and remittances must be made payable to Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

In any part of Plymouth, Barnstable, and Bristol Counties

Those desiring to have investigations made in this section will find it to their advantage to have the work done by the MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS, which owns a large and rapidly increasing collection of abstracts of probate and land records, also of town, church, cemetery, and private records, and has developed many lines of Mayflower descent not yet printed.

All investigations are conducted under the personal supervision of the Editor, and all fees received are added to the Society's Colonial Research Fund.
